Champions Choice Protect All

I'll admit it, I'm terrible about washing my bike. I don't have much time to do a really good job either. So when I do get a chance to wash it, I'm usually in a hurry and do a fast job. Between my family and the magazine it's hard to find time for much else.

Well, I couldn't stand it anymore! I'd gotten some samples from Adam Huber from Champions Choice and had seen a few more write ups in other motorcycle magazines about this product and how fast and good it was. (Okay, "FAST"...now there's a word I like.) There was no better time than the present, I still had bugs on my bike from Sturgis and this was October (how embarrassing).

On a sunny fall morning I just went for it. Josh, my two year old, was napping, so I didn't waste any time. I snuck out of the house, a bucket in one hand, rags and a can of Protect All in the other. I was a woman on a mission and nothing was going to stop me. Sure enough, someone tried. My daughter Lindsey, who is 4½ going on 18, ran interference with her loud offers of "Can I help"? Now I've been "helped" in the past by her and her brother and I wasn't looking forward to it. But, to preserve my sanity, my son's nap and to finally wash my bike, I gave in.

So there we were, armed and ready. She had her own rags and was ready to go. First we washed the bike, wiping it dry in the sun. Then we started spraying and wiping the Protect All on. This stuff is all it's cracked up to be and more. It is very easy. All you do is spray it on, wipe it in with one rag and polish it with the other rag. It only takes a few minutes and very little elbow grease.

Next thing I knew I was on my hands and knees, getting carried away with this new find. Lindsey was into it too, asking if I had another can so she didn't have to wait for me to help her. In a matter of about 15 minutes my bike looked great!

From there I went and did my truck, using the same can. My daughter, in the mean time had pulled her new 2 wheeler (with training wheels) out and was working it over feverishly. Yeah, I guess this is good stuff, even a four year old knows...
